

Friday Round Up!

23rd May 2025

School Vision

*Rooted and Growing in Love:
A culture of kindness in which all can flourish
(Ephesians 3 & 4)*

This has been a busy build up to the half term holiday. The Owls and Kites went on a lovely sunny trip to the We the Curious science museum in Bristol and despite a long journey had a wonderful time. They had lots of opportunity to explore there and there were lots of highlights that I'm sure they have shared with you all at home. Thank you to the team of Miss Hollingbery, Mrs Crossman, Mrs Miles and Mrs Mills for taking them.

The day after Wrens set off for Monkey World and despite a slightly damper day had a great day looking at all the different animals there. We managed to bring them all back again – nobody ended up with the monkeys which is a relief! Again, we thank the staff team of Mrs Hancock, Mrs Keeble, Miss Brine and Mrs Cull who went along with them. Well done Wrens for behaving so brilliantly.

I have a big thank you to Claire one of our parents who has made the most beautiful banner ready for the current Year 6s. It is also something that we will be able to be use for years to come as the Year 6s are lucky enough to attend the Leavers' service at the Cathedral. Thank you so much it is beautiful.

Doves have continued their coding challenge this week and have done a really great job of it, showing resilience and increased skills (better than mine!) Robins and Doves both earned their reward time this week, well done them there is lots of hard work going on in both classrooms. Owls have been learning about Pilgrimage in RE and this is a really interesting topic that I enjoyed sharing with them and Mrs Adcock.

Finally, I have some staffing news to share with you. Very sadly for us Miss Hollingbery will be leaving at the end of this academic year. She has been given a very exciting opportunity to relocate to London to continue her studies and also work at a Senior school as a Teaching Assistant. We are incredibly lucky to have had her for so long we and she will be missed hugely.

One date for the diary is the Semley Fete – once again we will be singing at the fete. They have always been very generous to the school and enable us to visit the pantomime. We wish you a very happy half term and look forward to seeing the children back on Tuesday 3rd June for an action packed second half!
