

Friday Round Up!

11th October

School Vision
*Rooted and Growing in Love:
A culture of kindness in which all can flourish
(Ephesians 3 & 4)*

You will receive the FRU this week after a successful Bake Off. We did not have Pru or Paul but we did have Judge Sammy and a really amazing array of cakes throughout the school. Thank you to FOSS for organising this, Demi for our lovely spoon prizes but mainly you all for putting in the effort and raising money for the school, you and your children are incredible. This year we are focusing on the Forest School shelter, another project which will benefit all the children in the school. We look ahead to the annual Pumpkin sale either 24/25th October depending on the weather.

This week we have enjoyed welcoming lots of you into the school for the parent teacher meetings. Thank you for taking the time to come and discuss your child's progress, I hope that you have found it useful. I am also grateful to the staff for their time and efforts in completing these valuable evenings.

On Wednesday I was lucky enough to be invited on the Doves trip to Shaftesbury Abbey Museum. This is not somewhere I have ever visited and it was a really great day. The museum staff, Penny-Jane and Phil, gave up their time for free to chat with the children about the Saxon settlement in Shaftesbury and the role of the Abbey. We made smelly pomades and did some weaving after having a really interesting walk around Shaftesbury. It was a great day out. I am really grateful to Mrs Gambier, Mrs Marshall and our parent helpers who made the day possible.

On one of my journeys around the school I have noticed that we have a particular criminal element in Kites class! They have all had their convict picture taken for the English work that they are doing – I hope they all learn to behave! Well done Kites I know you are working really hard on this topic of work. I know Owls are also working really hard on their creative writing, thinking about exciting and varied ways of starting their sentences. I was also intrigued by the art work that they were completing this week linked with their history topic.

We hope you have a lovely weekend and look forward to seeing you all on Monday.
