

Friday Round Up!

24th October 2025

School Vision
*Rooted and Growing in Love:
A culture of kindness in which all can flourish
(Ephesians 3 & 4)*

After what has been a very long first half of term, we come to the well-deserved break for all. I am so impressed with how all of the children have either started school or returned to school. There has been so much hard work, fun playtimes and good learning going on across the school. Wrens are now fully immersed in school life because they attend the Collective Worship with the whole school and they have made this transition with no fuss at all.

On the subject of Wrens, we say a sad goodbye to Mrs Rayner today as she starts her maternity leave, we cannot wait to meet the newest member of her family and thank her very much for all of her hard work settling the Wrens this term. Mrs Rumney is looking forward to stepping into the sparkly shoes!

Also, on the subject of Wrens (other classes do exist!!) they had their first school trip today to Tokes Farm, thank you to Lily there who offered this for free to the class. They had a wonderful time sowing wheat, caring for the animals and far more besides. Thank you to Mrs Hancock and Mrs Keeble for taking them, they commented that the behaviour of the Wrens was outstanding.

Across the rest of the school, I am delighted to report that Robins achieved their reward for following their class charter. Well done them! Doves have been working hard at their science again this week and today have enjoyed their last Forest School session. Owls have made fantastic Cartouches with Mrs Adcock, they worked so carefully on these. Kites have filled the school with the most delicious smell this morning as they have made bread from scratch and then baked it. Their hedgehogs look fantastic, I hope they taste good!

It has been great to see the pumpkins outside school this week. Thank you to the Bright family for donating and to all of you for buying. Thank you as always for the support FOSS show the school. We hope that you all have a wonderful break, lots of the children are tired and I hope that this will give them an opportunity to recharge ready for the busy second half of term and the build up to Christmas!
